The UW-Madison Police Department shall establish a code of conduct and appearance for its employees, and conduct an awards program.

DEFINITIONS:
"Domestic abuse" as defined in Wisconsin State Statute 968.075 (1)(a) refers to any of the following engaged in by an adult person against his or her spouse, former spouse, against an adult with whom the person resides or formerly resided; or against an adult with whom the person has a child in common.

1. Intentional infliction of physical pain, physical injury or illness.
2. Intentional impairment of physical condition.
3. A violation of law amounting to first, second or third degree sexual assault.
4. A physical act, or a threat in conjunction with a physical act, which may cause the other person to reasonably fear imminent engagement in the conduct described above.

“Sexual harassment” as defined by University of Wisconsin-Madison policy includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitutes sexual harassment when (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual’s employment or educational experience or their participation in a University program or activity, (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment, academic, or program-related decisions affecting such an individual, or (3) creates a hostile environment.

“Unlawful harassment” means conduct that has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual’s work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment. Such conduct may include racial or ethnic harassment. Racial or ethnic harassment may include threats, physical contact, pranks, vandalism, verbal, graphic, or written conduct directed at an individual or individuals because of their race or origin. Even if actions are not directed at specific persons, a hostile environment is created when the conduct is sufficiently severe, pervasive, or persistent so as to unreasonably interfere with or limit the ability of an individual to work, study, or otherwise participate in the activities of the University.

PROCEDURE:
26.1.1.1 CODE OF CONDUCT

A. The University of Wisconsin-Madison provides rules relating to conduct considered unacceptable (see Appendix C). These rules are established so the University can attain its objectives in an orderly and efficient manner and are not intended to restrict the rights of employees, but rather to advise employees of prohibited conduct. These rules are created pursuant to Wisconsin Statute 230.34 and Wisconsin Administrative Code section ER–46. Other rules are provided by statute, by administrative code, and by administrative procedures established by management. Additional work rules have also been established to meet special requirements of the Department. These work rules are as follows:
1. Employees shall maintain a high level of moral conduct in their personal and business affairs and shall act, both on and off duty, in a manner that reflects favorably upon the Department. Conduct unbecoming an employee shall include behavior that brings the Department into disrepute, reflects discredit upon the employee or the Department, impairs the operation or efficiency of the employee or the Department, or impairs the ability to perform as a law enforcement employee. Employees shall obey all applicable oaths of office and codes of ethics. Employees shall be courteous, civil, and respectful of their supervisors, associates, and University community members while on- and off-duty.

2. Employees shall not commit or omit any acts that constitute a violation of any Departmental or University rule, regulation, policy, procedure, directive, or order. Employees shall be thoroughly familiar with state statutes and directives that deal specifically and generally with their assigned duties. Employees shall immediately report to their supervisors any member who does not obey any order, directive, or law.

3. Employees shall not knowingly issue any order that violates any law, statute, University policy, or directive. Employees shall obey any lawful order of a superior, including any order relayed from a superior by an employee of the same or lesser rank. Except as otherwise provided in this directive, defiance of lawful authority or disobedience to lawful orders shall constitute insubordination. Employees shall take the following action when issued an unlawful order: advise the supervisor that the order is unlawful; advise the supervisor that the unlawful order cannot be obeyed; and file a written report of the incident with the supervisor’s next level of command.

4. Employees shall follow orders given by superiors. Employees who receive conflicting orders shall promptly and respectfully notify the appropriate supervisor. If the supervisor does not change the order to resolve such conflict, the last order given shall prevail.

5. Employees shall avoid regular associations or dealings with persons whom they know, or should know, are under criminal investigation or have a reputation for being involved in criminal behavior, except in the performance of duty or where unavoidable because of other personal relationships.

6. Employees shall not consume intoxicating beverages while on duty except in the performance of duty and while acting under proper and specific orders from a supervisor. Employees shall not report for duty, or be on-duty, while under the influence of intoxicants to any degree whatsoever, or with an odor of intoxicants about their person, except in the performance of duty and while acting under proper and specific orders from a supervisor. Employees shall report to their supervisor any known adverse side effects of prescription drugs that they are taking. Department of Administration (DOA) policy directs the investigation of the circumstances surrounding OWI driver’s license suspensions to determine whether the employee was operating a state vehicle and/or conducting state business. The findings of this investigation shall be reported to DOA.

7. Employees shall not make false or untrue statements during the course of their duties except as required during undercover assignments or as necessary while conducting an interview or interrogation.

B. Employees are not allowed to conduct a private business while on duty. Employees are not authorized to use their uniform or position to influence any personal business transactions.

C. During their on-duty time, employees are not permitted to collect discarded materials on University property. Permission is required to collect material while off duty. The removal of surplus equipment or materials from University buildings or grounds requires advance written approval of UW Purchasing Services or a receipt from UW Surplus Property and must be done on the employee’s off-duty time.

D. Employees who are on duty are expected to perform their work duties and shall not engage in prolonged periods of non-business activities such as personal reading, watching movies or shows or sporting events, streaming media, gaming, or using personal electronic devices for entertainment. Employees shall not sleep while on duty.

E. Employees operating department vehicles shall not use personal electronic devices in a manner which distracts them from the safe operation of a department vehicle.

F. Employees are not permitted to engage in political activities while on duty. Employees are permitted to hold elective or appointive public office provided it does not interfere with their employment.

G. An employee may not record another employee without the knowledge of that employee outside of the scope of official duties. For the purpose of investigations, the Department may video and/or audio record without notice to employees.

H. The Department shall act to protect the privacy of individuals who use Department locker rooms. Only Department personnel may enter and remain in a Department locker room to interview or seek information from any individual in the locker room. Cameras, video recorders, or other devices intended to record or transfer images may only be used in a Department locker room during personnel or criminal investigations and only with specific approval from the Chief of Police. No person may use a recording device to capture, record, or transfer a representation of a nude or partially nude person in a Department locker room.

I. Acceptance of cash or any other item, given to an employee for the purpose of compromising an employee’s position, is not permitted. Acceptance of gifts where there is no attempt to influence an employee’s official position, such as a gift from a visiting dignitary, may be allowed but only with permission from the Chief of Police.

J. Employees shall submit all necessary reports on time and in accordance with established Department procedures. Reports submitted by employees shall be truthful and complete, and no employee shall knowingly enter, or cause to be entered, any inaccurate, false, or improper information. Employees shall treat the official business of the Department as confidential. Information regarding official business shall be disseminated only to those for whom it is intended in accordance with established Department procedures. Employees shall not divulge the identity of persons giving confidential information, except as authorized by proper authority.

K. A uniformed or plainclothes officer shall provide name, radio number and agency, upon request if the request does not interfere with an investigation or jeopardize the officer’s safety. Plainclothes officers should present a badge prior to taking police action. Plainclothes officers should wear a visible form of identification when interacting with other police officers in tactical situations and special events. When a plainclothes officer is challenged by a uniformed police officer, the responsibility lies with the plainclothes officer to establish his or her identification and to have it acknowledged by the uniformed officer.

L. During the Pledge of Allegiance and the National Anthem, the United States flag shall be honored with a military salute by uniformed personnel. Personnel not in uniform are to stand at attention and place their right hand over their heart. Personnel should face the flag during the Pledge of Allegiance and/or National Anthem. If there is no flag displayed, personnel should face the music.

26.1.1.2 CODE OF CONDUCT – REQUIRED NOTIFICATIONS

A. All employees are required to provide current home addresses and telephone numbers and to immediately report any changes through the Department Internal Website. Employees shall provide a cellular phone number or other valid phone number where they can be contacted at if they do not have a home phone number.

B. Employees shall report to their supervisor any time they are contacted by a law enforcement officer in an official capacity, except when they are the victim of a crime. Supervisors shall report all such notifications to the Professional Standards Lieutenant for tracking in the agency’s personnel early warning system.

C. Employees who operate Department vehicles as part of their duties are required to have a valid driver's license that meets UW–Madison Risk Management standards. Employees shall immediately report the suspension, revocation, or cancellation of their driver's license to their supervisor. Supervisors shall report all such notifications to the Professional Standards Lieutenant for tracking in the agency’s personnel early warning system. The Professional Standards Lieutenant shall notify UW Risk Management when an employee is prohibited from legally operating a Department vehicle in the performance of duties shall and shall ensure the department conduct an annual driver’s license and criminal records check on each employee.

D. Employees who have an illness or injury occurring on duty that may affect their job performance shall report such information to their supervisor. If their supervisor is not available, they shall notify the OIC. The supervisor or OIC shall report all such notifications to the Professional Standards Lieutenant for tracking in the agency’s personnel early warning system.sleep

E. All property damage or injuries to other persons that occurred during or resulted from the performance of duties shall be reported using established reporting procedures.

F. Employees shall complete an Emergency Notification form and forward it to the Personnel Sergeant. This information should be reviewed, at minimum, annually and updated as needed.
26.1.1.3 CODE OF CONDUCT – DOMESTIC ABUSE

A. Sworn personnel are required to be eligible to carry firearms as a condition of their employment. Persons convicted of a felony or a crime of domestic abuse are prohibited by state and federal law from possessing a firearm and are ineligible to hold a position as a sworn law enforcement officer.

B. Personnel aware of another employee who may be engaging in a crime(s) of domestic abuse must notify their supervisor. Supervisors who become aware of an employee who may be engaging in a crime(s) of domestic abuse must notify a Captain, Assistant Chief, or the Chief who shall determine whether an internal investigation should be started.

C. If the Department becomes aware that an employee is the subject of an order of protection (restraining order), a Captain, Assistant Chief, or the Chief must be informed, and an internal investigation shall be started. If a Department member is the subject of an order of protection (restraining order), the employee must immediately surrender all personal and Department firearms pending the outcome of an internal investigation.

26.1.1.4 CODE OF CONDUCT – COURT ATTENDANCE

A. An officer shall appear for court after receiving a subpoena or verbal notification from the District Attorney’s Office.

B. Officers required to attend court shall appear promptly at the time and place set for court action. Officers shall immediately notify the District Attorney’s Office if an emergency or other circumstance shall detain them.

C. If an officer believes the case is no longer scheduled, the officer should verify the status of the case with the District Attorney’s Office.

D. The officer shall be dressed appropriately for court.

E. Requirements for the carry of firearms into the Dane County Courthouse include the following:
   1. Officers must be on duty and performing official duties;
   2. Officers shall wear a visible badge;
   3. Officers shall be required to state the nature of their official business;
   4. Officers in plain clothes should not expose the firearm to plain view; and
   5. Officers shall possess a Department photo ID

26.1.1.5 CODE OF APPEARANCE – UNIFORM

This section provides guidelines for the wearing of uniforms and civilian clothing while on duty. While these guidelines provide specific parameters and restrictions, no appearance protocol can cover all contingencies or opinions as to whether or not one’s particular personal appearance is “professional”. Final discretionary authority as to what is allowable or prohibited under these appearance guidelines rests with the Chief of Police:

A. The uniform is to be worn as issued, except for necessary alterations to ensure proper fit. No modifications, additions, or deletions of any uniform articles are allowed without permission of the Chief or designee.

B. Employees shall keep an extra uniform available in their locker.

C. Unless instructed otherwise, uniformed employees are granted discretion as to what authorized uniform shirt, uniform trousers, and outerwear to wear. Except for identification and uniformity purposes when designated, the wearing of a Department-approved hat is the individual officer’s option.

D. The police officer uniform includes:
   1. An optional navy blue tie;
   2. An optional navy or black turtleneck or t-shirt (mandatory if visible under the uniform shirt); and
   3. Dark socks and black footwear.

E. The police officer dress uniform, excluding those in the Honor Guard, includes:
1. Dress pants;
2. A long-sleeve shirt;
3. A navy blue tie;
4. 8 point hat;
5. Dark socks and black footwear; and
6. Command staff shall receive command staff coat and white long sleeve shirt.

F. The security uniform includes:
   1. An optional black tie;
   2. An optional black turtleneck or t-shirt (mandatory if visible under the uniform shirt); and
   3. Dark socks and black footwear.

G. The security dress uniform includes:
   1. Dress pants;
   2. A long-sleeve shirt;
   3. A black tie; and
   4. Dark socks and black footwear.

H. The law enforcement dispatcher uniform includes:
   1. A department approved polo shirt;
   2. Khaki pants; and
   3. Dark socks and black footwear.

I. The law enforcement dispatcher dress uniform includes:
   1. Dress pants;
   2. A long-sleeve shirt;
   3. A navy blue tie; and
   4. Dark socks and black footwear.

J. Shorts that are issued by the Department are an optional item for security officers and police officers. They are an option while conducting patrol work or working a security route or for community officers doing routine work. For events, the special order shall indicate whether officers assigned to outside work may wear shorts. Shorts are not authorized for persons working primarily indoors. Shorts shall not be authorized for most athletic events, except for perimeter assignments that are away from the event site. Bicycle unit shorts may not be used interchangeably with standard uniform shorts.

K. Insignia authorized for regular duty uniforms are listed below. Employees may be permitted to wear other insignia with the permission of the Field Services Captain. See the photos in Appendix G for guidance in the placement of items on the uniform. All items must be placed on the uniform as pictured. If the items do not all fit in the location as pictured, optional items should not be worn so that there is enough space for required items.
   1. Tie tack or clasp (required when wearing tie);
   2. Collar emblems (required at all times);
   3. Name bar (required at all times);
   4. Metal or embroidered badge (required at all times);
   5. Department issued whistle with attached whistle chain (required at all times);
   6. UW Police photo ID badge (required for personnel at the HSC);
   7. Departmental awards ribbons (required at all times);
   8. American flag pin (optional);
   9. Years of service bar (optional, only issued after 5 years of service);
   10. Years of service sleeve stripes (optional with one stripe for each 4 years of sworn law enforcement service with any law enforcement agency);
   11. Badge cover in honor of officers killed in the line of duty (required when authorized and during the time frame designated by the Chief of Police or designee)
   12. Awareness ribbons (optional as authorized and during the time frame designated by the chief of police or designee).
   13. Up to two approved specialized unit’s insignia (optional).

L. When uniformed personnel are assigned to wear civilian clothing, clothing shall be appropriate to that assignment. Clerical, management, and administrative personnel shall wear business attire unless other attire is approved by their supervisor. Detective personnel shall be allowed to wear civilian clothing appropriate to their assignments, which shall normally be business attire. Plainclothes officers shall be required to have a uniform at the Department at all times.

M. A list of all items and identification issued to each employee is maintained. The Department shall provide each employee with all items currently issued and available. Issued items remain the property of the Department. Unserviceable items (i.e., badges, uniforms, patches) should be disposed of in a manner that limits their potential for being misused.

N. Each person is responsible for his or her issued radio. Problems experienced with the radio should be reported on the Radio Repair Worksheet on the Intranet.

26.1.1.6 CODE OF APPEARANCE – STANDARDS
All members of the department are visible representatives of the University of Wisconsin-Madison and its Police Department. A neat, clean, and well-groomed appearance is required of all employees during work hours. The following shall govern general appearance standards:

A. Hair should be groomed and present a professional appearance. Uniformed personnel with hair that is long enough to obstruct their vision should secure their hair in such a way so as not to interfere with their line of sight. Facial hair may be worn, provided the appearance is neat and well-groomed, and does not prevent or interfere with issued safety equipment.

B. The uniform shall be well maintained, clean, and unwrinkled. Shoes and equipment shall be well maintained.

C. Tattoos may be required to be kept covered if they are political, have a potential negative impact to the Department, or have potentially offensive words, terms, logos, pictures, cartoons, or slogans. Visible tattoos on the ears, head, or face are prohibited. Visible tattoos on the neck area are prohibited unless approved by the Chief of Police.

D. Fingernails shall be professional in appearance and not be of a length that interferes with the safe and successful performance of one’s job responsibilities.

E. Jewelry:
   1. Jewelry worn shall be professional and may not have potentially offensive words, terms, logos, pictures, cartoons, or slogans.
   2. Earlobe hoops or plugs that are used to enlarge piercing holes in excess of 5mm in the earlobes are not allowed.
   3. Officers and uniformed civilians shall not wear more than two earrings on each ear. They shall not be larger than 10mm each.

F. All personnel may wear one piece of visible body piercing jewelry (other than previously allowed earrings), no larger than 5mm that is professional in appearance, does not pose a safety risk, and does not interfere with the employee’s job performance.

26.1.2 AWARDS PROGRAM
The following establishes a procedure to publicly recognize members of the community, employees of other organizations, and Department employees who exhibit exceptional efforts toward the safety and security of the UW–Madison community.

A. An Awards Committee shall be established during the first week of December of each year. The Committee shall consider nominations for the current calendar year. This Committee shall be appointed by the Chief of Police or designee from volunteers. It shall consist of five to seven persons, with at least: one represented person from the police, one represented person from security, one person from the community, and one person from supervision, clerical, or dispatch. The Chair of the Committee may be from management or the Director of Communications as selected by the Chief. The Awards Committee shall be charged with the following responsibilities.
   1. Plan the ceremony for the following spring;
   2. Review the nominations; and
   3. Forward all nominations and recommendations for awards to the Chief.
B. Award nominations shall be accepted from any Department member or from the general public. Nominations can be submitted in the form of a letter or an Award face sheet accompanied by documentation: officer reports, newspaper articles, other news media transcripts, and/or electronic recordings. This information shall be forwarded to the Director of Communications for electronic storage.

C. Awards shall be made yearly. The period is established as the calendar year. Nominations shall be made during the year of the qualifying conduct or prior to January 15 of the following year. The Awards Committee shall submit recommendations to the Chief of Police or designee by mid-February. The Chief or designee shall review the nominations and report back to the Committee during the last week of February.

D. The Awards Ceremony shall be held during the month of March or April following the award year. The formal presentations shall be made during a late afternoon or evening ceremony held at an appropriate location on campus. This shall be followed by a reception.

E. There shall be a general invitation to Department members, to their families and friends, to other police and/or security departments, to the press, and to the general public. Special invitations may also be extended to appropriate UW–Madison officials and to persons who were principals in incidents that led to awards.

F. The Committee should, when possible, publish a list of award winners in advance of the ceremony. The Committee should, when possible, inform the individuals who nominated an award recipient about the status of the nomination. The Committee shall use the Badger Beat and Department’s Web page to announce the Awards Program and recipients.

G. A final list of all awards and recipients shall be provided by the committee to the Professional Standards Lieutenant for annual reporting to the public of department complaints and commendations regarding its employees.

H. There are six award categories to honor employees, organizations, and citizens for their exceptional efforts. They are as follows:

1. Commendation for Valor. Awarded to Department members who knowingly and rationally demonstrate uncommon courage and/or bravery; or an action that places a Department employee in grave personal danger; or an outstanding performance of duty demanding the highest expression of integrity, including sacrificing peer approval. Recipients of this award shall receive a medal in the form of a pin to be worn on the uniform or lapel, a medal suspended on a ribbon for wearing at formal occasions, a shadow box display containing a Department patch, and an engraved metal plate bearing the recipient’s name and citation.

2. Lifesaving. Awarded to Department members who knowingly and directly act to save a life or lives even in the event that the attempt was unsuccessful. Recipients of this award shall receive a ribbon and a wooden plaque bearing an engraved metal plate bearing the recipient’s name and citation.

3. Meritiorious Service Commendation. Awarded to Department members for outstanding service above and beyond the call of duty, for highly creditable acts serving the community, for major protection of property, for consistently demonstrating highly professional performance over an extended period of time, or for demonstrating uncommon perseverance in an ongoing investigation. A person selected to receive three or more Excellent Service Commendations during one awards period shall receive one Meritiorious Award in place of the multiple Excellent Service Commendations. Recipients of this award shall receive a ribbon and a Wisconsin-shaped wooden plaque bearing an engraved metal plate bearing the recipient’s name and citation.

4. Excellent Service Commendation. Awarded to Department members for excellent service above and beyond the norm in the performance of everyday duties; or for exhibiting a high standard of job performance in a single incident, investigation, or exceptional arrest; or for training others with dedication and concern in an effort to improve the Department’s operations; or for submitting for consideration a device or method that is adopted to increase efficiency in an administrative or tactical procedure. Recipients of this award shall receive a ribbon and a wooden plaque bearing an engraved plate bearing the recipient’s name and citation. The plaque shall also have several small plates on which the year(s) of award shall be engraved.

5. Community Service Commendation. Awarded to Department members for community service above and beyond the norm in the performance of everyday duties; or for being instrumental in developing and implementing a new program of crime prevention, community service, or other activity to enhance public safety on campus; or for maintaining sustained and consistently exceptional community relations. Recipients of this award shall receive a ribbon and a wooden plaque bearing an engraved plate bearing the recipient’s name and citation. The plaque shall also have several small plates on which the year(s) of award shall be engraved.

6. Chief’s Award. Presented to a member or members of the community who have assisted a member of the Department or have performed commendable acts such as lifesaving. Recipients of this award shall receive a wooden plaque bearing a metal plate with their name and the citation.
I. There shall be a master plaque for each award category. Metal plates engraved with each recipient’s name and date of award shall be placed on the appropriate plaque. The plaques shall be displayed in a prominent place in the Police Building.

26.1.3 SEXUAL AND OTHER FORMS OF UNLAWFUL HARASSMENT IN THE WORKPLACE

A. It is the policy of the Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin-Madison, consistent with its efforts to foster an environment of respect for the dignity and worth of all students and staff of the University of Wisconsin Madison, that unlawful harassment, to include sexual harassment, of students and employees of the University of Wisconsin System is unacceptable and impermissible conduct that shall not be tolerated.

B. The department shall comply with University of Wisconsin-Madison’s Sexual Harassment policy, which includes reporting and training requirements and is referenced here: https://compliance.wisc.edu/documents/uw-madison-policy-on-sexual-harassment-and-sexual-violence/

C. Persons who feel that they have been sexually harassed and wish further information or assistance in filing a complaint are encouraged to contact a Captain or a Title IX Coordinator.

D. The University provides several means by which other forms of unlawful harassment can be reported, including means by which such behavior can be reported if the offending party is in the complainant’s chain of command. Persons believing they have been subjected to unlawful harassment may elect to proceed informally by bringing the complaint directly to the attention of their supervisor (if not the offending party) or by filing a formal complaint with the Title IX Coordinator.

E. Immediate and thorough investigations shall be conducted of any allegations of harassment in the workplace. Effective and appropriate disciplinary action may be issued in any case in which such allegations can be substantiated. Retaliation against persons who file complaints, who provide information related to a complaint, or who otherwise participate in an informal or formal complaint process is a violation of University policy. Such action is cause for disciplinary action.

F. The department shall comply with the provisions regarding sexual violence and sexual harassment investigatory outcomes for current or former employees which is referenced in UW Madison Office of Human Resources Policy 21.01 Employee Personnel Files.

G. Harassment training shall be conducted with all department personnel at initial hire and the department shall provide training updates at a minimum, biennially, thereafter.
