

2021

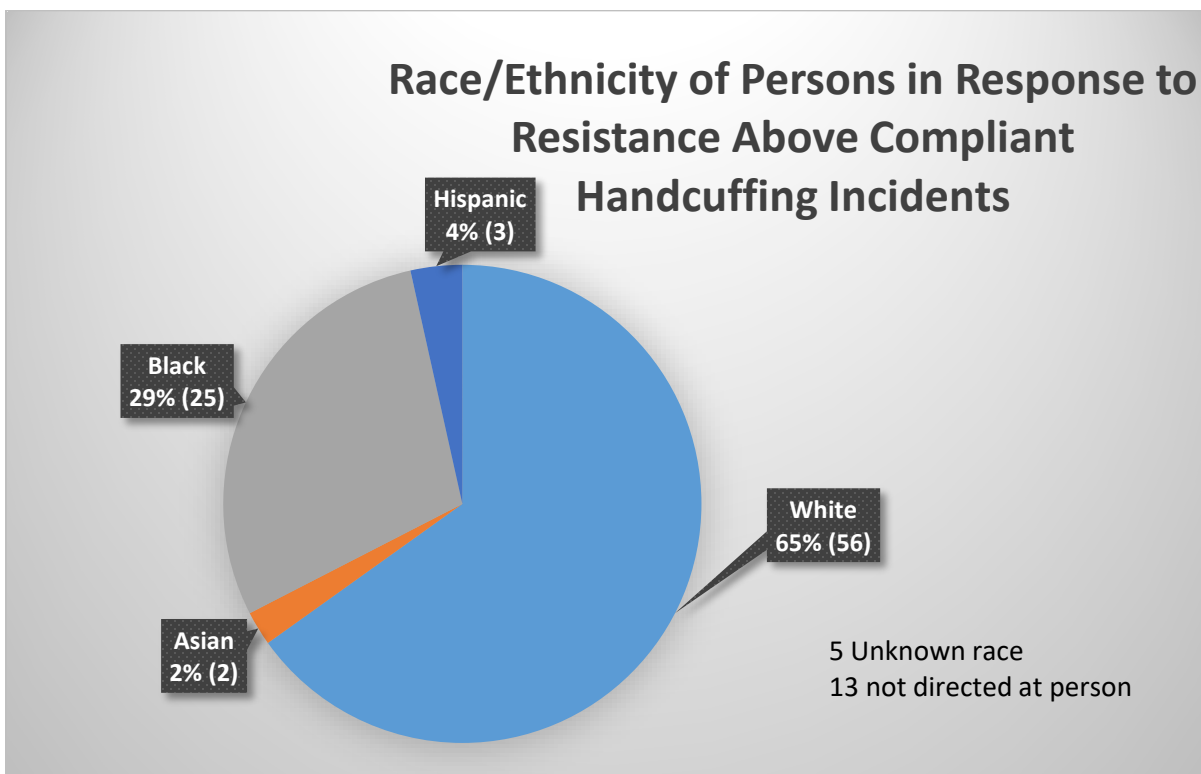

87,604 total incidents January 1, 2021 – December 31, 2021

445 custodial arrests

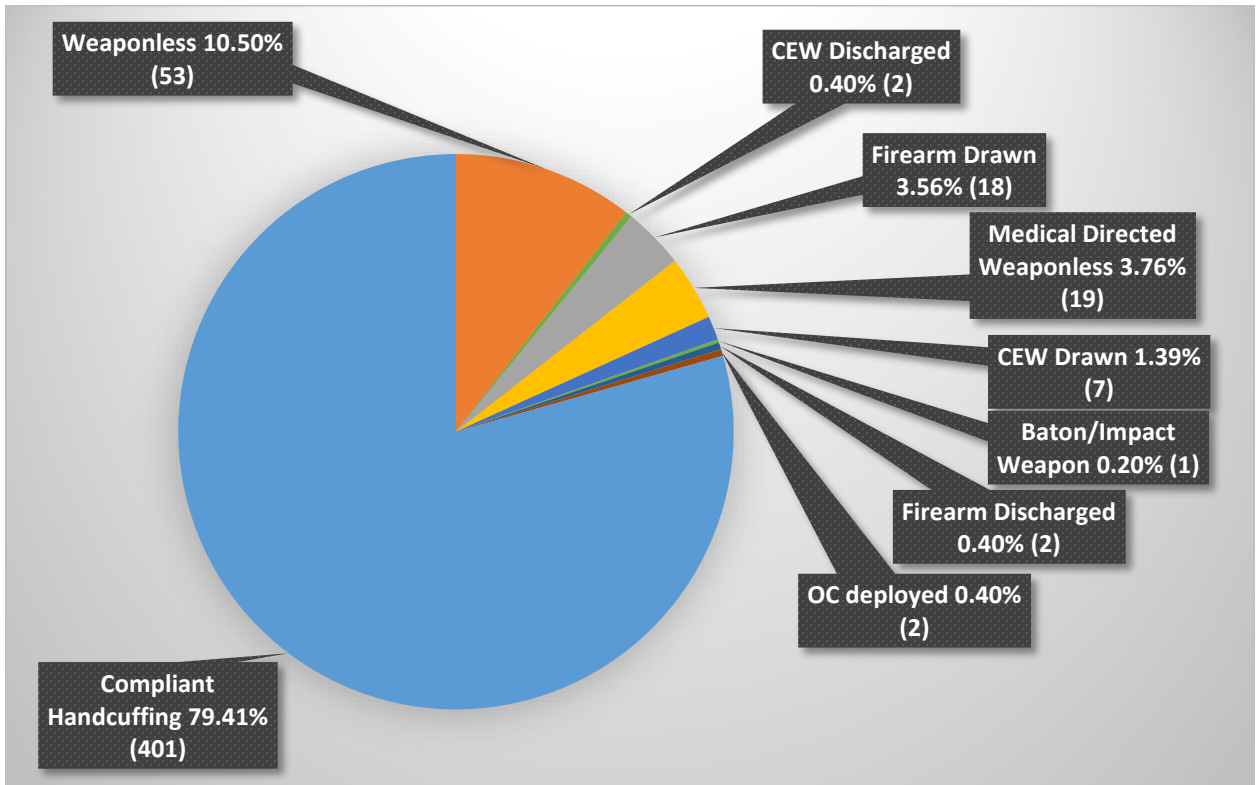

401 compliant handcuffing

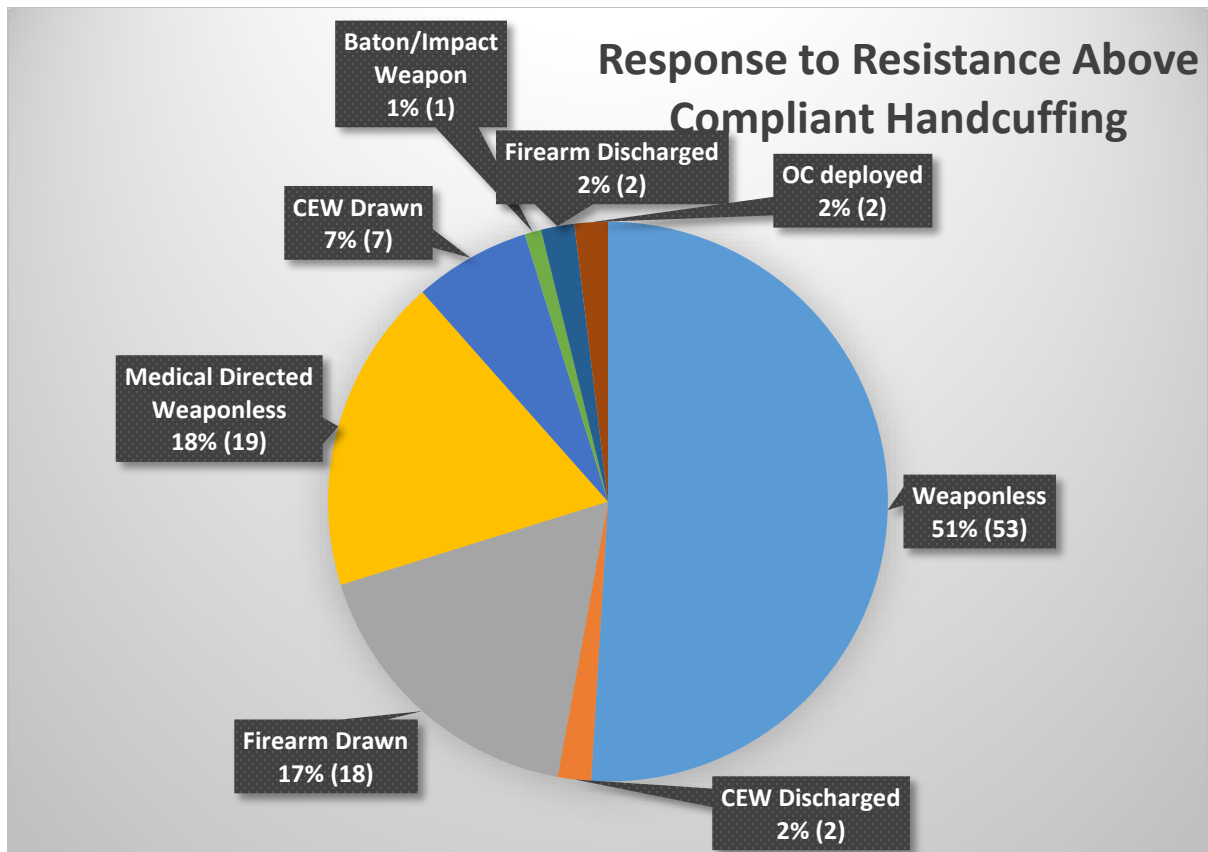

104 incidents involving response to resistance. *Note, not all response to resistance involves a custodial arrest.

0.12% of total incidents involved a response to resistance

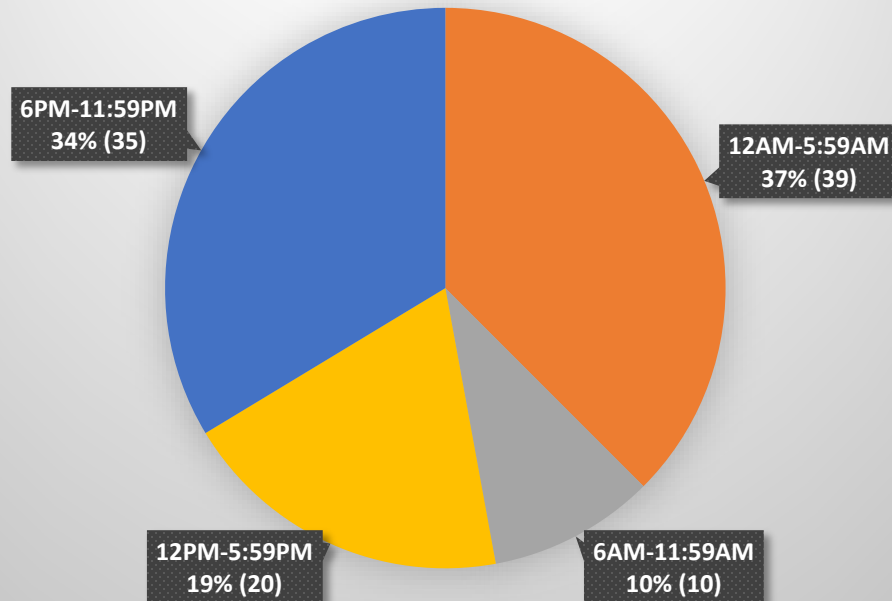

The racial/ethnic breakdown for use-of-force incidents reported for 2021 is:
65% Caucasian; 29% Black; 4% Hispanic; 2% Asian

The breakdown for the method of force reported for 2021 is:
 51% no weapon used (may include holds, strikes, pressure points, etc.); 17% firearm drawn; 2% firearm discharged (dispatched an animal); 7% Taser drawn; 2% Taser discharged; 1% baton; 2% OC discharged; 18% medical directed weaponless (force used at the direction of a medical professional to control a resistive patient for medical purposes).

Response to Resistance Above Compliant Handcuffing - Time of Day

The breakdown for the time of day in which use-of-force incidents were reported 2021 is: 37% between Midnight and 6am; 10% between 6 am and noon; 19% between noon and 6pm; and 34% between 6pm-Midnight.